

2012 Suendero
Paso Robles, CA

90 Points

Easily the star of the show, the 2012 Suendero (79% Cabernet Sauvignon, 17% Petit Verdot and 4% Malbec) offers classic Cabernet notes of cassis, toasted bread, jammy blackberries and toasted spice in its full-bodied, beautifully textured personality. It has ripe tannin, solid mid-palate depth and tons of charm. Drink bottles anytime over the coming decade.

“Opaque ruby. Pungent dark berries, cherry liqueur and licorice on the nose, lent complexity by subtle woodsmoke and cedary oak nuances. Sappy and concentrated, offering bitter cherry and blackberry flavors and a hint of spiced cake. Finishes with strong dark fruit thrust, a touch of vanilla and smooth, harmonious tannins.”

“On the nose, currants, plums, and black cherries fuse with elements of clove, anise, and dark chocolate. Plum, cherry, and cassis flavors emerge on the palate, along with allusions of anise, sweet spice, and cocoa. Plentiful tannins and bold fruit make this a fine pairing for a beef stew.”
