Editors' Choice – "...a deep and complex nose. The fine-grained tannins deliver gamy, blackberry flavors, making for a very solid wine that's a steal of a deal." —M.K.

Very Highly Recommended

“Stylish Cabernet aromas and moderate alcohol (13.2%), good acidity, and a nice medium-body mid-palate with moderate tannin.” —Dan Berger

2011 Cabernet Sauvignon, Estate Paso Robles, CA

Wine of the Week

“The color is dark ruby with a magenta tinge; the bouquet is ripe and fleshy, abundant with aromas of spiced and macerated red and black currants and plums...Lots of grip here, a real mouthful of dusty velvety tannins bolstered by graphite minerality and vibrant acidity, yet ripe black fruit...The texture is sleek, lithe and supple. Altogether, a cabernet of lovely complexity and nuance for drinking with steaks and grilled leg of lamb, now through 2018 to 2020. And look at the alcohol content, a sensible and flattering 13.3 percent. Excellent.” —Frederic Koepfel
